Dear Jack:

I am pleased to enclose your copy of the Uniform Financial Reporting Manual which could not have been issued without your perseverance in providing appropriate guidance to this office. We are, indeed, indebted to you for rendering this invaluable service to the Commonwealth. We look forward to receiving your comments and suggestions and trust that you will continue to serve on the Accounting Issues Policy Committee to keep local government in the leading position with respect to new developments on the national scene.

I have some interesting ideas for the prototype financial statements to be issued at a later date as Chapter Six of this manual, and I anticipate scheduling a meeting of the group next month to review this topic. We will contact you in the near future to discuss a mutually convenient date for this meeting.

Sincerely,
